

All Hands Boatworks, Inc.

All Hands Boatworks, a new Wisconsin not-for-profit community organization, is focused on Milwaukee's urban youth in order to connect them more actively with our out-of-doors, support academic and character development, and provide them with employability skills and job opportunities. AHB works to build character, opportunity, and hope in Milwaukee's disadvantaged youth through wooden boatbuilding projects and on-the-water-activities. AHB currently offers a Building To Teach "residency" program, with plans for after-school programs, rowing, and job skills training.
