

COMPASS PROJECT The kids build the boat... and the boat builds the kids

Positive Youth Development through Boat Building and Rowing

Compass Project is a community-based program that gives youth opportunities to experience traditional and modern woodworking in a fully-equipped boat shop with the opportunity to row wooden boats on Casco Bay in Maine. Compass Project's strengths-based philosophy combines multiple approaches for providing at-risk youth with the support and tools they need to succeed. Programs teach youth:

- STEM Subjects
- Positive Youth Development
- Work Force Readiness
- Environmental Education
- Health and Wellness
