

L. Scott Rizzo

Retired Naval Officer

Senior Naval Science Instructor
Montrose High School NJROTC

US Navy Master Instructor

TWSBA Steering Committee

“Building to Teach” (B2T) Certified

Scourge of Gunnison River Trout

Scott Rizzo taught Nautical Science and built fine boats with NJROTC Cadets in the high desert of Western Colorado at Montrose High School for 18 years

Certified “Sailing Program Director” with the U.S. Navy Sailing Association along with a ‘Keel Boat Skipper, Instructor’ rating

Drafted into the Teaching With Small Boats Association as a strategic planner/steering committee member in 2010 by Mr. Joe Youcha

B2T certified at Cama Beach, WA, at the 2012 TWSBA Conference

Designer of the “Solo Drifter,” a.k.a. “The boat that thinks it’s a hat,” featured in the November Splash segment of Duckworks Magazine

Cadet built “Seasick Serpent” featured in Woodenboat’s Launchings section, SEP/OCT 2014; one of eight canoes constructed for ‘adventure racing’ among NJROTC units

Has van and will travel to build boats with interesting and interested young people

Contact info: CDR Scott Rizzo
2004 Walden Drive
Montrose, CO 81401
970-209-3736
lsrizzo@aol.com
lsrizzo@bresnan.net

