

WoodenBoat School

Access to Experience

Created in 1981 as an extension of WoodenBoat magazine, WoodenBoat School offers a wide variety of one- and two-week courses that provide ample opportunities for experience to folks of all ages, backgrounds, and experience levels. Students learn by doing, each at their own pace, in a stimulating, inspiring environment, where people enjoy working, learning new skills, ideas, and the value of tradition, and, quite often, exceeding their own expectations. All individuals have a unique opportunity to work alongside renowned and gifted instructors who are more than willing to share their skills and knowledge with all who participate. Each winter and spring, WoodenBoat School oversees the successful “Stump to Ship” boatbuilding program with the Brooklin School 8th grade.
